The Problem – the challenge for small business

Small business needs to be more capable, more versatile, more mobile and more adaptable than its competitors. Management and staff need to be able to make better, faster decisions and do more tasks. We need to be able to schedule meetings, take notes and share documents with anybody from any location at any time – however we don't have the resources and the luxury of sophisticated computer systems to support us.

- I find it difficult to find what I am looking for
- I waste a lot of valuable time searching for information
- I am not making the best use of my information
- I need to know my information is safe and secure
- I am sick and tired of spending time integrating changes from documents I have sent to other people on the project
- I don't have a huge budget to spend on IT
- I can't share large files with my team and my clients - my email client won't let me
- How do I work out which is the correct version?

Are you saying any of these? Then you need Our Global Office....
